Dear Sir:

I am writing to find out if you would be interested in playing baseball with The Eagles this coming season.

If you will please write me right away, and tell me what salary you are asking for, if we come to terms, I will get busy on working out a trade for you.

We are leaving for training camp April 8th, and will train in Richmond Va, and stay at Virginia Union University. I am going to give each man $20.00 a week in addition to paying room and board in camp.

I am corresponding with Mackey, and expecting him to come with us this season. Maybe you too could come east together.

I will appreciate hearing from you right away as you know the time is drawing near for the season to get underway.

Very Truly Yours
